BAND

Making Childcare Count

"...an invaluable source of support and information for the private and voluntary sector...staff are always friendly, knowledgeable and very helpful."

Quote from Band Members' Survey 2016.

The benefits of Childcare last a lifetime-it's one of the most important ways of ensuring all Children get the best possible start in life.

Accessible, high quality Childcare is a critical priority for parents, whether they are working or lone parents or from low income families.

Childcare & Playworkers know that when they provide good care it enables parents to go to work, or undertake training, with confidence - and helps to build the prosperity of the city for everyone.
